VIRGINIA'S LAX LAWS

MAKE IT EASY FOR FRADULENT
COMPANIES TO OPERATE HERE,
Picked Out This State as a Good Field to Work.

The exposure made by The Times of the fraudulent operations of the Irrovident Insurance Company has created a strong hope in the minds of the insurance fraternity that it will result in some satisfactory Legislature on the subject. A well-known insurance man, in discussing the matter yesterdny, said:

TO IMPROVE THE STREETS

A TEDIOUS SESSION AND MANY MEASURES CONSIDERED.

The Committee on Streets held its semithe sidewalks was actually private property, inasmuch as it had not yet been dedicated to the city. He added that the city could not force the property owners under existing conditions to have the work done, unless it was shown that the improvement was necessary to abate a numance.

THE VALUE OF MULES.

adopted:

Revived, That hereafter the chairman of this committee shall order all bids to be opened immediately after the roll and have the same tabulated upon the blackboard (textuer with any special notes), for consideration of the committee later in the evening.

The City Engineer stated that he had conferred with Saperintendent Lynn and Mr. Glasgow, of the penitentiary board, and that he would have the grades of both Spring and Canal streets presered by the next regular meeting. He did not know whether the grade of Spring street would be acceptable to the penitentiary board or not.

After the transaction of a good deal of routine business of minor importance the committee adjourned.

To Improve Alleys as Sanitary Measures, Controversy over Paving Contracts, monthly meeting in Room No. 5 of the City Hall last evening at 7 o'clock, There were present Messrs, McDowell (subchairman), Bahen, Blanks, Boykin, Bloomberg, Ferriter, Gray, King, Mann and Page, Some discussion arose as to the grading and paving of the sidewalks on Cary street, between Twelfth and Fourteenth streets, and the City Attorney, who was present, stated that he had been informed by interested property owners that part of the ground used for improvement was necessary to abate a nursance.

On motion of Mr. King, the committee decided that the regular course was carried out in making the improvement.

Allegations were heard in regard to the grading and paving of the alley between Gilmer and Graham streets and Marshall and Clay streets, and after some discussion the committee decided to recommend to the Council that the work be done.

A communication was received from Dr. W. T. Oppenhimer, president of the Board of Henth, asking that the alley between Broad and Marshall and Hancock and Graham streets be at once graced and paved as a health measure. On motion of Mr. Blanks, the committee decided to recommend to the Council that the work be done.

At the suggestion of the Board of Health, the committee also decided to recommend the grading of the alley between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eight and L and M streets.
